

Roosevelt
Institute for American
Studies

Pursuing the Rooseveltian Century

The Futures of Food

10 & 11 October 2019

Program

Thursday 10 October 2019

10:00-10:30 Registration & Coffee/Tea

10:30-11:00 Welcome and Opening of the Conference

- Jo-Annes de Bat, Member of the Executive Board, Province of Zeeland
- Damian Pargas, Executive Director RIAS
- Johan Dourleijn, Managing Director, Food Delta Zeeland
- Giles Scott-Smith, Academic Director RIAS / Conference Organizer

11:00-11:30 Keynote Lecture I

David Woolner (Marist College / Roosevelt Institute)
Henry Wallace and the Green Revolution: A Lost Legacy of the Roosevelt Era?

11:30-12:30 Keynote Lecture II

Courtney Fullilove (Wesleyan University)
The Profit of the Earth: Preserving Biodiversity

12:30-13:30 Bio Lunch

13:30-15:00 Session 1: Society, Economics, and Futures of Food

Chair: Ger Rijkers (University College Roosevelt)

- Niek Koning (Wageningen University & Research)
Beyond Wizards and Prophets: How to Make the World a Food-Secure Place in the Future
- Frederike Praasterink (HAS University of Applied Sciences)
Future Food Systems
- Herman Lelieveldt (University College Roosevelt)
Food Politics between Integration and Demarcation: From Level Playing Field to Gastronationism?

15:00-15:30 Coffee / Tee Break

15:30-17:00 Session 2: Biodiversity and New Foods

Chair: Inez Flameling (University College Roosevelt)

- Koos Biesmeijer (Naturalis)
Crop Pollination: An Essential Component of Sustainable Agriculture
- Klaas Timmermans (NIOZ Yerseke)
The Future Is Seaweed: Sustainable Food and Energy
- Pauline Kamermans (Wageningen University & Research)
Comparing Deltas: Climate Change and Aquaculture in the Netherlands, Denmark, and Portugal

17:00-17:30 Break

17:30-18:30 Matthijs Bosman
Nederland Superland

Friday 11 October 2019

09:30-10:00 Registration & Coffee/Tea

10:00-11:00 Keynote Lecture III

Bas Mohrmann (Co-Owner RuFus-Rural Futures GmbH; Former Head Asia, 2030 Water Resources Group, World Bank Group)
Future of Foods versus Rural Futures: More Symbiosis, or Growing Conflicts?

11:00-11:30 Coffee/Tea Break

11.30-13:00 Session 3: Food, Energy, and Sustainability

Chair: Courtney Fullilove (Wesleyan University)

- Jouke Heringa (HZ University of Applied Sciences)
The Aquaculture Paradox
- Jacob van Berkel (HZ University of Applied Sciences)
Changing Landscapes: The Trade-Off between Food and Energy Production
- Marnix Poelman (Wageningen University & Research)
Our Seas and Oceans and the Protein Transition

13:00-13:15 Project Presentation by Food Curators

13:00-14:30 Bio Lunch

14:30-16:00 Session 4: Climate Change and Crop Salination

Chair: Margot Verhaagen

- Peter van Bodegom (Leiden University)
Salt-Tolerant Crops for a Sustainable Future
- Arjen de Vos (The Salt Doctors)
Making Saline Agriculture Work: Challenges and Opportunities
- Joost Bogemans (Serra Maris)
Adapting 'New Crops' for Saline Environments

16.00-16.30 Break

16.30-17:15 Closing Lecture

Gerard van Keken
Coastal Foodscapes: Explorations and Reflections on the Past and Future of Zeeland

17:15-18:00 Reception with Local Drinks and 'New Foods' by Stoom Middelburg

This conference is part of the activities during Dutch Food Week
<https://dutchfoodweek.nl/>

This program is sponsored by

Roosevelt Institute for American Studies

Abdij 8

Postbus 6001

4330 LA Middelburg

T +31(0)118 631590

E rias@zeeland.nl

www.roosevelt.nl

