

Franklin D. Roosevelt: Usher Books

Introduction

This collection of 64 microfiches reveals who was where in FDR's White House and at what time. It lists houseguests, along with their arrival and departure times, and also lunch and dinner guests. Whereas the "Diary and Itineraries" collection focuses on the President's political appointments, the "Usher Books" collection mainly documents the social and leisure activities of Franklin and Eleanor Roosevelt. It also covers the President's daily movements and whereabouts outside of the Oval Office. Occasionally, related newspaper clippings are included.
