Description of the Papers

The Papers of William Howard Taft (1857-1930), numbering about 700,000 items, fully document Taft's long public career as United States Solicitor General (1890-92), judge of the Sixth United States Circuit Court (1892-1900), President of the United States Philippine Commission (1900-01), first Civil Governor of the Philippine Islands under American control (1901-04), Secretary of War (1904-08), President of the United States (1909-13), professor of constitutional law at Yale University (1913-21), and Chief Justice of the United States (1921-30). Taft placed the main body of his papers in the Library of Congress in 1919 as the first installment and in later years made substantial additions to his collection. The Library acquired legal title to Taft's papers in 1952, when his heirs signed a deed of gift, thereby terminating the deposit status of the papers which had been in effect for more than 30 years. The Taft papers are in 26 series:

Series 1. Family Correspondence and Related Items. 1805-1909. 39 boxes. Chiefly correspondence exchanged among the various members of the Taft family. The arrangement is chronological and, within days, alphabetical by name of the correspondent, by name of the organization, or by name of the locality of the organization. Enclosures are filed with the covering letter.

Series 2. William Howard Taft—Helen Herron Taft Correspondence. 1882-1929. 17 boxes. Primarily correspondence between Taft and Helen Herron, later, Mrs. Taft. The letters are arranged in chronological order; the enclosures are filed with their covering letter. Additional correspondence between Taft and Mrs. Taft can be found in Presidential Series No. 3, and a few letters are in other series in the collection.

Series 3. General Correspondence and Related Material. 1877-1930. 624 boxes. Chiefly incoming correspondence, together with related material, and some outgoing correspondence, particularly during the Secretary of War period, the Yale period, and the Supreme Court period. Only six boxes of general correspondence are included for the Presidential years. A few scattered letters and notes in Taft's own handwriting, holographs, and typescripts are included in this series, as well as retained copies of letters written by Taft after the letterbook system was abandoned in 1921. Series 4. William Howard Taft-Theodore Roosevelt Correspondence. 1897-1918. 8 boxes.

Subseries 4A: 1897-1918. 6 boxes. Correspondence of Theodore Roosevelt, primarily with Taft, and related material. The papers are arranged in chronological order and, within days, alphabetically.

Subseries 4B: 1907-09. 2 boxes. Mainly letters received by Theodore Roosevelt and apparently referred to Taft for appropriate action. Some of the letters, ostensibly enclosures, were sent without covering letters; other enclosures, however, are filed with the covering letter. The correspondence relates to the arrangements for the White House Governors' Conference on the Conservation of Natural Resources. The arrangement is chronological and, within days, alphabetical by correspondent.

Series 5. Executive Office Correspondence (Presidential Series No. 1) 1909-10. 151 boxes. Subject files or case files covering roughly the first year of the Taft administration, and consisting of correspondence relating to the functioning of the Federal Government. Arranged in two groups of case files, each alphabetically by case file title. Within each case file, the arrangement of documents is chronological and, within days, alphabetical by name of correspondent. A third group of miscellaneous papers is arranged in chronological order and, within the day, alphabetical by name of correspondent. Enclosures are filed with the covering letter. An alphabetical list of case file titles is provided in the Index and is filmed as a target at the front of the series.

Series 6. Executive Office Correspondence (Presidential Series No. 2) 1910-13. 215 boxes. A continuation of the Federal Government correspondence of Series 5, covering the last three years of Taft's administration. Case files are in their original arrangement of numbered files 1 to 5003, arranged in numerical order. The arrangement of Series 6 is the result of a reorganization of the Executive Office filing system in the summer of 1910. Within each case file, the documents are arranged chronologically to the day and, within the day, alphabetically by name of correspondent. Enclosures are filed with the covering letter. An alphabetical list of case file titles for this series is provided in the Index and is filmed as a target at the front of the series.

Series 7. The President's Personal File (Presidential Series No. 3) 1909-13. 17 boxes. Correspondence and related items for the Presidential period relating to personal and confidential matters, primarily with members of Taft's immediate family, his official family (particularly cabinet officers and other high Government officials), foreign dignitaries, classmates, and very close friends, some of whom corresponded with Taft during the entire period of his long public career. The arrangement is a numbered case file system consisting of 566 case file titles of personal names and names of organizations or institutions. The internal arrangement in each case file folder is chronological and, within the day, alphabetical by correspondent. An alphabetical list of case file titles for this series is provided in the Index and is filmed as a target at the front of the series.

The user is cautioned that the publication of the contents of this microfilm may be construed as constituting a violation of literary rights. These rights derive from the principle of common law that the writer of an unpublished letter or other manuscript has the sole right to publish the contents thereof, unless he affirmatively parts with the right; the right descends to his legal heirs regardless of the ownership of the physical manuscript itself. It is the responsibility of an author or his publisher to secure the permission of the owner of literary property rights in unpublished writings. Literary property rights in the writings of William H. Taft have been dedicated to the public.
